ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT

November 14: Weis Center for the Performing Arts Concert at the Campus Theatre Kaia Kater

7:30 PM Kaia Kater, born in Canada of African-Caribbean descent, grew up between two worlds: one her family's deep ties to Canadian folk music in her Toronto home; the other the years she spent learning and studying Appalachian music in the United States. Her old-time banjo-picking skills, deft arrangements and songwriting abilities have landed her in the spotlight in North America and the United Kingdom, garnering critical acclaim from outlets such as Rolling Stone, CBC Music, No Depression journal and Uncut magazine. On schedule for Nov. 30 on the Weis Center stage, the Soweto Gospel Choir, with opener Eric Ian Farmer.
